

Saskatchewan Association of Social Workers Student Award

The Award

The SASW Student Award is presented to a Saskatchewan social work student enrolled in the Faculty of Social Work, University of Regina, taking classes within Saskatchewan, or in an accredited social work program outside of Saskatchewan. The Award is presented in recognition of a student's contribution to his/her community, beyond the immediate requirements of education/employment.

The award is supported by the fund that SASW has placed under the management of the South Saskatchewan Community Foundation. The yearly award shall be determined by the SASW Awards Committee in accordance with Canada Revenue Agency regulations.

Eligibility

- Eligible students shall be enrolled in the Faculty of Social Work at the University of Regina, including the First Nations School of Social Work, or a Saskatchewan resident attending an accredited social work program outside Saskatchewan.
- Applicants to be considered are students in good standing academically at the undergraduate or graduate level, taking at least 60% of the full-time course load.
- The award shall be limited to one per student per degree.
- Involvement in community service over the most recent five year period shall be the main criteria used in evaluating applications. In this context, activities related to the professional association, group and volunteer work are the main areas for consideration.
- The SASW Awards Committee may also take into consideration financial need and whether the applicant has a current/valid student membership with SASW.
