

Responding ethically and effectively to clients at risk for suicide

Join Bespoke Mental Health Canada on Friday November 3rd, 2023 at 10.00 a.m. - 11.30 a.m. (PT), 1 p.m– 2.30 p.m. (ET) for a 90 minute webinar delivered by Professor Derek Truscott & Dr. Jonathan Dubue on how to work with clients at risk for suicide in an ethical and effective manner.

Can't attend on that date? Just book to watch it 'on-demand' at a time that suits you. Available to watch for one year from event (i.e., November 3rd, 2024).

In this webinar we will discuss working with clients at risk for suicide. Topics will include the frequency of suicide ideation and rates of suicide among clients seeking help, the limitations of suicide risk assessment, proven methods for responding effectively to suicide, and the ethical, legal, and professional expectations of psychologists vis-à-vis suicide. Clinicians will be shown how to respect clients' autonomy and work collaboratively in order to respond both ethically and effectively.

Bespoke Health Canada is approved by the Canadian Psychological Association to offer continuing education for psychologists. Participants who complete this workshop (either live or on-demand) are eligible to receive 1.5 CE credits.
